Terms of business
for Non-UK authorised intermediaries

1. Application and scope

1.1. These Terms set out the conditions upon which Premier may at its sole discretion accept Clients placed with it by the Intermediary acting as agent of the Client. In consideration of the mutual benefits and promise contained in these Terms, the parties have agreed to enter into these Terms and to be bound by them. Premier has categorised the Intermediary as a Professional client. Unless specifically stated, these Terms apply to both PFM and PPM.

1.2. The Intermediary warrants that at all times it, its employees and Authorised Representatives have all relevant permissions from the FCA (or are exempt from authorisation by the FCA) to conduct business and it is authorised to enter into and perform its obligations under these Terms.

1.3. The Intermediary will remain the agent of its Clients in relation to all aspects of the services provided by Premier as contemplated under these Terms (except to the extent of the Intermediary’s personal obligations under these Terms), until terminated in accordance with section 15 or until Premier is advised by the Intermediary’s Client that the Intermediary is no longer acting on his behalf.

1.4. The Intermediary warrants that:

1.4.1. it has obtained all necessary authorities and consents from the Client to act on the Client’s behalf, and to process, disclose and receive the Client’s information as contemplated by these Terms; and

1.4.2. Premier may rely, but shall not be obliged to act on any instruction provided by the Intermediary in respect of the Client.

1.5. The Intermediary acknowledges that it is not authorised to act on behalf of or bind Premier and in particular under no circumstances will the Intermediary act or hold itself out to a client as Premier’s agent.

1.6. The Intermediary agrees that:

1.6.1. it will at all times in the course of its dealings with Clients, potential clients and Premier, act in good faith and exercise all due skill, care and diligence as would reasonably be expected of a professional intermediary of financial services and will act within the scope of its regulatory permissions as defined by the FCA;

1.6.2. to the best of its knowledge, any information provided to Premier will be complete, accurate and not misleading and that Premier may rely on such information; and

1.6.3. it will inform Premier as soon as practicable if it ceases to be authorised under the Act or is the subject of an investigation by the FCA.

1.7. The Intermediary represents and warrants that it understands the requirements of all Applicable Laws, rules and regulations relating to bribery and corruption and the avoidance of tax in the United Kingdom (and any other jurisdiction that may be relevant to the activities under or in any way connected with these Terms) and undertakes that it will comply with all requirements of such laws, rules and regulations (including for the avoidance of doubt the Bribery Act 2010 and the Criminal Finances Act 2017) that apply in relation to all activities under or in any way connected with these Terms.

1.8. The Intermediary has introduced or intends to introduce Clients to Premier for the purposes of investing in and/or acquiring Investment(s). These Terms only apply to the extent that the Intermediary’s Clients are outside the United Kingdom. They are legally binding and (subject to any amendments in accordance with section 14 below or special terms Premier notifies to the Intermediary), they shall apply to all Business which the Intermediary may carry out with Premier. By placing or continuing to place Business with Premier, the Intermediary is deemed to have accepted these Terms.

1.11. Premier will not accept Business from an Intermediary who is not or who ceases to be authorised (or exempt from authorisation) by their regulator.

1.12. If the Intermediary is an Appointed Representative it warrants that it is authorised to enter into these Terms. If the Intermediary is a principal of a network of Appointed Representatives these Terms shall apply to the Intermediary and each of its Appointed Representatives, and the Intermediary shall be responsible for ensuring that its employees, agents, and Appointed Representatives and its Appointed Representatives’ employees and agents are aware of and comply with these Terms and that it has a written agreement in place with its Appointed Representatives requiring its Appointed Representatives to comply with these Terms. Terms of business

They also have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority in the EU Member State of your habitual residence or place of work or in the place of the alleged infringement if they consider that the processing of personal data relating to you carried out by us or our service providers infringes the General Data Protection Regulation.

13. Monitoring of telephone calls
13.1. Premier may record telephone conversations and other communications (including mails, emails or documentation of client orders made at meetings) with the Intermediary and, or, the Client for regulatory, compliance, our mutual protection and for training purposes. The Intermediary hereby agrees that Premier may deliver copies or transcripts of such recordings to any court or competent regulatory authority. A copy of any such conversations and communications will be available on request for a period of five years (or, where requested by the competent regulatory authority, for a period of up to seven years) from the date when the record is made.

14. Indemnity and liability
14.1. The Intermediary agrees to indemnify Premier and keep Premier indemnified against any loss, claims, payments, fines, penalties or liabilities (“Losses”) suffered or incurred by Premier arising from:
   14.1.1. any failure by the Intermediary to comply with the Applicable Laws;
   14.1.2. any failure by the Intermediary to perform a suitability assessment in respect of each Client in accordance with these Terms and COBS;
   14.1.3. any failure by the Intermediary to carry out customer due diligence to the standard required by the Anti Money Laundering Requirements in respect of its Client;
   14.1.4. any breach by the Intermediary of these Terms;
   14.1.5. the provision of incomplete or inaccurate information by the Intermediary or failure to update information previously supplied to Premier;
   14.1.6. any transaction in an Investment by a Client undertaken in good faith by Premier in accordance with any instruction of the Intermediary or in consequence of any introduction of the Client by the Intermediary to Premier pursuant to these Terms;
   14.1.7. any inaccurate or misleading statement made to a Client concerning Premier and/or an Investment; and
   14.1.8. any errors made by the Intermediary and any negligence, fraud or wilful default of the Intermediary, except where such Losses are directly caused by the negligence, fraud or wilful default of Premier.

14.2. Premier shall only be liable to the Intermediary for loss suffered by the Intermediary arising directly as a result of the negligence, fraud or wilful default of Premier. Premier shall not be liable for special, indirect or consequential damages or loss of profit, customers, goodwill, reputation or contracts on the part of the Intermediary or any Client. Nothing in these Terms shall exclude or limit any liability of either party for any matter that it would be illegal or in breach of law for that party to exclude or limit, or attempt to exclude or limit.

15. Variation
15.1. Premier reserves the right to vary these Terms subject to one month’s notice being given to the Intermediary in writing, by electronic mail or by a notice placed on the Premier website, except that Premier may vary these Terms on less than one month’s notice in circumstances where changes in the rules of a relevant regulating authority or legislation imposed by a relevant government are required to take effect earlier than one month’s notice would allow. In this case, as much notice will be given to the Intermediary as is reasonably possible. The Intermediary will be deemed to have accepted the revised Terms by continuing to deal with Premier.

15.2. The Intermediary may not sub-contract or transfer any of its rights and obligations under these Terms without Premier’s prior written consent.

16. Termination
16.1. These Terms can be terminated by either party on one month’s notice in writing.

16.2. Premier reserves the right to terminate these Terms without notice if, in relation to the marketing of Investments the Intermediary or, if relevant, any of its Controllers, commit any offence involving fraud or dishonesty, or if a resolution is passed or an order is made in relation to the winding up (while solvent), the insolvency or bankruptcy of the Intermediary, or any of its Controllers, or if a receiver or administrative receiver is appointed over all or any material part of the assets of the Intermediary or any of its Controllers or an administration order is made in respect thereof; or the Intermediary, or any of its Controllers ceases or threatens to cease to carry on business or to suspend payment of any of its debts or is deemed to be unable to pay its debts as and when they fall due, or the Intermediary or any of its Controllers enter into a composition or arrangement with its creditors or any equivalent procedure in its home jurisdiction; or if the Intermediary ceases to be authorised or exempt from authorisation under the Act or in its home jurisdiction.

16.3. In the event of the death of an Intermediary who is a sole trader, or the death of any of the Intermediary’s Controllers, these Terms will terminate automatically, as if notice had been served as above.

16.4. Termination of these Terms will be without prejudice to the completion of transactions already initiated.
17. Notice

17.1. Any notice given under these Terms shall be deemed to have been duly given:

Any notice sent by first class post shall be deemed to have been served on the next business day following the day in which it was posted and any notice sent by email will be deemed to have been served upon receipt of acknowledgement or by the next business day if no acknowledgement is received.

18. Repayment of Fees or Commission

18.1. If a contract is cancelled after a fee or commission has been paid to the Intermediary, Premier will require repayment of the fee or commission which has been paid in advance to the Intermediary. This does not apply when the Client is realising his Investment.

18.2. If fees or commission are credited to an account held by the Intermediary, Premier shall arrange payment of any amount due from the Intermediary under these Terms by debiting that account with the amount due. If this results in a debit balance, the Intermediary will be required to pay Premier the balance due. If the amount owing to Premier is due from a subsidiary of the Intermediary, Premier will require payment of the amount due from the Intermediary in the event of the subsidiary not making such payment.

19. Miscellaneous

19.1. Premier seeks to comply with the FCA rules and guidance on Treating Customers Fairly and requires the Intermediary also to do so, including, but not limited to, compliance with the FCA Guidance on ‘Responsibilities of providers and distributors for the fair treatment of customers’. Premier may request information from the Intermediary which is reasonable in this regard.

19.2. Premier may make available its online valuation service to the Intermediary. The offer and acceptance of this service is subject to additional terms and conditions.

19.3. At its discretion, Premier reserves the right not to accept business from an Intermediary.

19.4. The Intermediary will not issue or arrange any advertising or marketing document relating to Premier’s Investment products or funds unless it has submitted the draft document to Premier and received Premier’s approval.

If the Intermediary wishes to make a complaint in respect of the services provided by Premier, they should in the first instance write to Premier’s Compliance Officer, who is responsible for the complaints procedure at the address given in clause 17. In addition, the Intermediary may have the right to complain to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

19.7. The Intermediary shall be responsible for handling all complaints from a Client relating to its sales and advisory activities involving Premier’s Investments and shall notify Premier as soon as practicable of such complaint(s). If a Client makes a complaint in connection with a Premier Investment, documentation relating to a Premier Investment or transactions carried out by Premier, the Intermediary shall notify Premier immediately and shall provide the Client with details of the person to whom the Client should address the complaint, and shall inform the Client of any right of redress including (if applicable) the right to refer the matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

19.8. A statement describing the Intermediary’s rights to compensation if PPM or PFM are unable to meet any of their liabilities is available on request.

19.9. If any part of these Terms is found to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of these Terms which shall remain in full force and effect.

20. Governing Law

These Terms and any disputes arising out of or in connection with them shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
